

How long is the recuperation?

A pressure garment is worn over the buttocks and the patient is advised immediate ambulation. Daily activity can resume in about one week. Physical activity and exercise can be resumed in 3 weeks.

Can the implants break?

The implants used from buttock augmentation are made of soft silicone that feels like rubber. They do not contain any gel or liquid like the breast implants. Thus, they cannot break or leak.